Quotes:

"It's just that the longer I fish, the more I long for simplification and lightness."
Tom Sutcliff, MD "Reflections on Fishing"

"I fished a little while ago with a man, not in his first youth, who had wasted the flower of his life on business and golf and gardening and motoring and marriage, and had in his way postponed his initiation to trout fishing far too long!"
Arthur Ransome "On Giving Advice To Beginners"

"You can't say enough about fishing. Though the sport of kings, it's just what the deadbeat ordered."
Thomas McGuane "In Silent Seasons"
