Quotes:

"The heart of fly-fishing lies in solving problems. Observations leads to knowledge of the prey and its prey. If you're playing the game right, your fly becomes a convincing counterfeit in the food chain."

~ "Alaska Magazine" Ken Marsh

For the rich there's therapy for the rest of us there's Fly Fishing.

It is not difficult to learn how to cast; but it is difficult to learn not to snap the flies off at every throw.

~ Charles Dudley Warner, 1862

It must, of course, be admitted that large stories of fishing adventure are sometimes told by fisherman -- and why should this not be so? Beyond all question there is no sphere of human activity so full of strange and wonderful incidents as theirs.

~ Grover Cleveland

All good fisherman stay young until they die, for fishing is the only dream of youth that doth not grow stale with age."

~ J.W. Muller

Nothing makes a fish bigger, except for "almost" being caught.

~ Anonymous

Calling a fly rod a pole is like calling a rifle a gun.
